the Truckers to the tune of 2 to 1, in a well-played and fast exhibition of the national sport.

The victory of Norfolk is due to the excellent pitching of Walker, who held the Truckers down to four hits, and opportune batting that came on top of the few bobbles made by Portsmouth.

The first run of the gaine came in the third, and went to ...e credit of Portsmouth. It came on a couple or singles, between which a racrifice and infield out, were sandwiched.

In the fifth Hamilton seemed to weaken, the Tars batters got busy, and a couple of runs resulted. Doubles by Chandler and Murdock came in quick succession, and counted. After that Hamilton tightened up and nothing was doing. Score:

Snappy Game at Charlotte.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlotte, N. C., June 16.—In twelve innings of fast, snappy and sometimes sensational playing, the Hornets came off victorious by a score of 2 to 1. The game was perhaps the most genuinely exciting of the season, the teams struggling like gladiators to exert a superfority. The twirlers were both in the pink of condition, and the fielding was sharp. Humpirer's throw from deep right to the plate in the tenth, nailing Kelley, was perhaps the feature of the contest.
